RAMSHA KHAN

SY M.Sc. Clinical Psychology

Pursuing M.Sc. Clinical Psychology at MIT-WPU's Department of Clinical Sciences has been transformative for my career. I was drawn to this program that was launched strategically in 2021 to address the growing mental health needs post-COVID. The comprehensive two-year curriculum provided deep insights into clinical practice intricacies while developing essential therapeutic skills. Our experienced faculty fostered an inclusive learning environment, encouraging innovative thinking and ethical professional development. The program's focus on research aptitude and practical training prepared me exceptionally well for clinical practice. With diverse career opportunities as Employment Counsellor, Psychology Program Manager, and Human Resource Analyst, this department truly shapes competent mental health professionals ready to make meaningful societal contributions.
